

ORGANISATION BYLAWS

OF

TEMENOS AG

1. FORMAL BASIS

- 1.1 The Board of Directors (hereinafter "the Board") of Temenos AG (the "Company") issues the following Organisation Bylaws based on the Swiss Code of Obligations (hereinafter "CO") as well as the applicable provisions in the Company's Articles of Association.
- 1.2 The Company is the ultimate holding company of the Temenos Group (the "Group") with numerous subsidiaries in different countries (the "Subsidiaries") directly or indirectly owned by the Company.

2. AREA OF APPLICATION

- 2.1 These Organisation Bylaws specify the duties, responsibilities and contain the rules of organisation of the executive bodies of the Company, which are:
 - the Board of Directors
 - the Chairman of the Board of Directors
 - the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors
 - the CEO
 - the Audit Committee
 - the Compensation Committee
 - the Nomination & ESG Committee
- 2.2 Any changes of these Organisation Bylaws are legally binding as soon as the Board has approved such changes by formal resolution. In the event of a conflict between these Organisation Bylaws and the Articles of Association of the Company, the Articles of Association shall prevail.

3. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Organisation and Elections

- 3.1 As a rule the Board of Directors shall be composed by a majority of independent members.

A director is considered as non-independent if any of the below criteria is met:

 - Any director specifically designated as a representative of a significant shareholder of the company;
 - Any director who is also an employee or executive of a significant shareholder of the company;

- Any director who is nominated by a dissenting significant shareholder, unless there is a clear lack of material connection with the dissident, either currently or historically;
- Beneficial owner (direct or indirect) of at least 10% of the company stock;
- Government representative;
- Currently provides professional services to the company, to an affiliate of the company, or to an individual officer of the company or one of its affiliate in excess of USD 10,000 per year;
- Represents customer, supplier, creditor, banker, or other entity with which company maintains transactional/commercial relationship (unless company discloses information to apply a materiality test);
- Any director who has conflicting or cross-directorships with executive directors or the Chairman of the company;
- Relative of a current employee of the company or its affiliates;
- Relative of a former executive of the company or its affiliates;
- Founder/co-founder/member of founding family but not currently an employee;
- Former executive (5 year cooling off period);
- Any additional relationship or principle considered to compromise independence under local corporate governance best practice guidance;
- 12 years of tenure or more.

In case the above criteria are not met, the director is considered as independent.

- 3.2 According to the Company's Articles of Association the term of office of the members of the Board of Directors shall be one year. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected annually and individually by the shareholders.

The Board elects from among its members annually at its first session after the ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, its Vice-Chairman and such other positions as the Board deems appropriate from time to time.

- 3.3 The Board elects annually at its first session after the ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders the members of the Audit Committee (AC) and of the Nomination & ESG Committee (NC) in accordance with section 5.1 below. As per Swiss regulations the members of the Compensation Committee (CC) are elected annually by the shareholders.

The Board may from time to time elect other committees and specify their duties and powers. In line with the Swiss Code of Best Practice for Corporate Governance the Board shall appoint the Chair of each of its Committees.

- 3.4 The Board may further designate from time to time a Secretary who does not need to be a member of the Board. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of meetings of the Board and of its Committees; the minutes shall contain all resolutions adopted at the meeting.

- 3.5 If/when applicable, at least once a year and as often as required, independent directors should meet without the presence of non-independent directors, such meeting should be chaired by the Vice-Chairman. The Vice-Chairman should inform the Chairman of the agenda items to be discussed and the outcome of those discussions.

Duties and Powers

- 3.6 The Board of Directors holds the ultimate decision-making authority of the Company for all matters except those reserved by law to the shareholders. The Board of Directors shall manage the business of the Company insofar as it has not been delegated to the CEO, who chairs the Executive Committee of the Company.

The Board and each member shall keep itself regularly informed of the course of business pursuant to clause 3.16 below.

Meetings

- 3.7 The Board shall meet as often as required by the business of the Company, but at least four times each year.
- 3.8 Any calling of a meeting shall specify the agenda and shall be made at least ten days in advance, except for urgent matters. Each member of the Board shall be entitled to request the immediate calling of a meeting specifying at the same time the purpose thereof. The invitation shall be made by the Chairman, or in the case of his absence, by the Vice-Chairman or another member of the Board.
- 3.9 Although not present physically, a member shall be deemed present if he or she participates in any meeting by phone or videoconference.
No representation of Board member by another member or by any other person is possible.
Persons who are not members of the Board may participate in meetings if their expertise is required and they have been invited by the Chairman of the Board.

Passing of Resolutions

- 3.10 The Board may pass resolutions if at least one-third and a minimum of three Board members, including either the Chairman of the Board or the CEO, are present. No quorum is required if the board meeting is called to validate/certify a capital increase and to effect the registration of the respective amendments of the Articles of Association.
- 3.11 The Board passes all resolutions by the majority of the votes present. In the case of a tie, the Chairman shall have the casting vote.
- 3.12 Resolutions can also be passed by way of the written approval of a proposal made (circular resolution to be signed by all members of the Board), unless a member requests in writing within three calendar days from receipt of the corresponding proposal a discussion in a meeting.

Minutes

- 3.13 All resolutions and the main issues of the deliberations and discussion shall be minuted. Circular resolutions are to be entered into the minutes of the next meeting.
- 3.14 The minutes are to be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary of the meeting upon approval by the Board at its next meeting.

Reporting

- 3.15 At each meeting, the Board shall be informed by the CEO or the Chairman on the current course of business of the Company and the Group and all relevant business matters.

Information and Inspection Rights

- 3.16 Each member of the Board may, without any restriction, demand information on all business of the Company/Group and may inspect all books, business files and corporate documents. All Board members shall, without restriction, provide any information and produce all documents on the Company or the Group requested by any other member of the Board to the extent available to them.

- 3.17 If a Board member exercises his or her right to information and inspection improperly or in a way disruptive to the orderly course of business of the Company or the Group, the Board may decide to grant this member only restricted information in accordance with the legal requirements.

Compensation

- 3.18 In compliance with the law, the Board shall determine and propose each year to the shareholders the maximum compensation amounts for each of the Board of Directors and of the executive management for the next financial year (i.e. prospective approach); the shareholders shall then have the right to approve such amounts in a binding vote.
- 3.19 Compensation of the non-executive members of the Board is limited to fixed compensation i.e. Board fees.
