

ENTERPRISE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Parties

- (1) [TEMENOS ENTITY] whose registered office is [Temenos entity registered address] ("TEMENOS"); and
- (2) [CLIENT ENTITY] whose registered office is at [Client entity registered address] (the "CLIENT")

These Enterprise Terms are effective between Temenos and the Client as of the date the Client signs these Enterprise Terms.

Capitalized terms used in these Enterprise Terms have the meaning given to them in Appendix 1.

1. The Mechanics of the Agreement

1.1 Ordering

The Enterprise Terms apply to Temenos Offerings that the Client or any Permitted Client Affiliates purchase or otherwise acquire the right to access or use. The Client or any Permitted Client Affiliates may order Temenos Offerings from Temenos by entering into an Order Form with Temenos.

1.2 Agreement Structure

Each Order Form, together with these Enterprise Terms, the applicable Offering Schedule, Product Specific Terms, the Uniform Terms and any other documents attached to or incorporated by reference into that Order Form, forms an independent contract between Temenos and the Client (each, an "Agreement" or, in reference to one such independent contract, "the Agreement").

1.3 Order of Precedence

In the event of any inconsistency between parts of an Agreement, the following order of precedence applies:

- (a) the Order Form;
- (b) the Product Specific Terms;
- (c) the Offering Schedule;
- (d) these Enterprise Terms;
- (e) the Uniform Terms (other than Product Specific Terms); and
- (f) any other document incorporated by reference to any of the above.

2. Use of Temenos Offerings

2.1 Use of a Temenos Offering shall be limited to and subject to:

- (a) the restrictions and usage limits set out in an Order Form;
- (b) the Acceptable Use Policy; and
- (c) the operations described in the Documentation.

2.2 The Client shall ensure that Client Users use the Temenos Offering solely for the Client's internal business purposes and to process the Client's own business and that of Permitted Client Affiliates, subject to any other limitations set out in the Agreement. The Client may not use the Temenos Offering to provide any service bureau or time-share services to any third parties without prior written consent by Temenos and payment of any additional Fees.

2.3 User Designation

The Client is responsible for identifying and authenticating Users, approving Users' access to the Temenos Offering and preventing any unauthorized access to the Temenos Offering. The Client shall:

- (a) not authorize any person to use or access the Temenos Offering unless that person has been designated a User;
- (b) maintain the confidentiality of User Credentials and not permit Users to share User Credentials; and

(c) ensure that all Users only use the Temenos Offerings as permitted by, and in accordance with, the Agreement.

2.4 The Client is responsible and liable for all Users' actions and inactions, including any breach of the Agreement, and for any misuse, and associated harm from misuse, of User Credentials.

3. Temenos Obligations

3.1 Temenos Offering

Temenos shall provide the Temenos Offering in accordance with the applicable Offering Schedule and Order Form for the relevant Term.

3.2 Third-Party Components

Where Temenos makes Third-Party Component(s) available to the Client the use of such components will be subject to any terms specified in the applicable Order Form, Offering Schedule or Product Specific Terms or other written agreement between the Parties.

3.3 No responsibility for Client Materials

Temenos is not responsible for any aspect of any Client Materials and makes no representations and provides no warranties in relation to Client Materials. To the extent permitted by law, Temenos excludes all liability for damages in relation to Client Materials.

3.4 Interoperability with Client Materials

The Temenos Offering may contain features designed to interoperate with certain Client Materials. If any third party provider of such Client Materials takes any action that alters, impedes or impairs Temenos' ability to interoperate with the Client Materials, Temenos is not responsible or liable for any resulting lack of interoperability.

3.5 Temenos Subcontracting

Temenos may:

- (a) subcontract any or all of its obligations under the Agreement to its Affiliates; and/or

Temenos is responsible for performance of the subcontracted obligations by its Affiliates and Third Party Subcontractors.

3.6 General Supplies

Temenos may purchase General Supplies. Obtaining General Supplies is not "subcontracting" for the purposes of the Agreement and providers of General Supplies are not Third Party Subcontractors. Temenos shall be responsible for General Supplies.

4. Changes to the Temenos Offerings, Documentation and Uniform Terms

4.1 Temenos may update the Uniform Terms and Documentation, provided that the updates do not:

- (a) have a material adverse impact on the Client's rights under the Agreement;
- (b) result in a material degradation to the overall security of the Temenos Offering;
- (c) expand the scope of, or remove restrictions on, Temenos' use or handling of Client IP or Personal Data required for performance of the Temenos Offering.

Updated Uniform Terms and Documentation will be available via the Client Portal or the URL provided.

4.2 Temenos may update a Temenos Offering in a manner that does not materially reduce its functionality, performance, availability or security.

4.3 Temenos may replace any material part or functionality of a Temenos Offering by providing not less than twelve (12) months' notice to the Client, with a materially similar part or functionality of such Temenos Offering.

4.4 The rights under Sections 4.1 to 4.3 do not limit the ability of Temenos to make changes:

- (a) required for Temenos to comply with applicable law;
- (b) required to address a material security risk; or
- (c) that are applicable to new Temenos Offerings, new functionality or new features made available to the Client, otherwise, no modification, amendment, or waiver of any provision of the Agreement shall be effective unless it is agreed in writing by both Parties.

5. Client Obligations

5.1 General Requirements and Client Materials

The Client shall be responsible for procuring and maintaining efficient and up to date hardware, software and internet access as required for the access and use the Temenos Offerings. The Client is responsible for any Client Materials, including all related costs and compliance with any applicable third party terms and conditions.

5.2 Dependencies

The Client shall ensure the performance or provision of any obligations, activities and/or services required to enable, interface with or interact with the Temenos Offering, including any Dependencies, in a professional and timely manner. To the extent any failure, delay, incompleteness, or inaccuracy in a Dependency impacts Temenos' performance of its obligations, Temenos shall: (a) be excused and shall not be considered in breach of such obligations; and (b) be entitled to adjust its Fees and charge the Client additional Fees and other costs to the extent that such circumstances cause Temenos to incur additional effort or cost.

5.3 Client Affiliates

The Agreement may also be for the benefit of each Permitted Client Affiliate. Each Permitted Client Affiliate must comply with the Agreement, and the Client is responsible for compliance by Client Affiliates with the Agreement. The Parties may amend the Agreement without the consent of any Client Affiliate.

5.4 Compliance

The Client is responsible for its own legal and regulatory compliance in connection with the Temenos Offering. The Client shall conduct its own due diligence and risk assessment in relation to the Temenos Offering. No technical requirements that result from the Client's regulatory obligations shall apply to the Agreement, unless expressly agreed in writing under the Agreement.

6.1 Fees and Payment

Fees are identified in the Order Form. Payment obligations are non-cancellable. Unless otherwise stated in the Agreement, Fees paid are non-refundable and all amounts due from the Client to Temenos shall be paid in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding. 6.3 Invoice Disputes

If the Client reasonably and in good faith disputes all or part of an invoice, it shall provide Temenos written notice of the reasons for such dispute within fourteen (14) days of receipt of such invoice. The Client shall not be entitled to withhold payment of any Fees relating to the undisputed aspects of the invoice.

6.4 Overdue Amounts

If Temenos does not receive an undisputed amount payable by the Client by the due date, such overdue amount shall accrue interest at the lower of: (a) one per cent (1%) per month; or (b) the maximum rate permitted by law, in each case from the due date until the date payment of such amount is received by Temenos.

6.5 Taxes

Fees do not include Taxes, unless otherwise stated in an Order Form. The Client is responsible for paying all Taxes associated with the Client's purchase from Temenos. If the Client is required by law to make any deductions or withholdings from payments to Temenos, the Client shall pay such additional amounts to Temenos as may be necessary to ensure that the actual amount received by Temenos after deduction or withholdings (and after payment of any additional taxes due as a consequence of such additional amount) equal the amount that would have been payable to Temenos if such deductions or withholdings were not required. The Client shall indemnify and hold Temenos and its Affiliates harmless from and against any claims, liabilities, or expenses (including any interest or penalties) arising out of the Client's failure to withhold or timely remit Taxes to the proper governmental authority.

7. Intellectual Property

7.1 Reservation of Rights

Temenos owns all right, title, and interest in and to the Temenos IP and the Client owns all right, title, and interest in and to the Client IP. Neither Party grants any rights to the other Party except as expressly specified in the Agreement or as provided under non-excludable laws.

8.2 Compelled Disclosure

A Recipient may disclose Confidential Information of the Discloser if disclosure is compelled by law, regulation or by the rules of a registered securities exchange which the securities of a Party or its Affiliates are listed, provided that the Recipient gives the Discloser prior notice of such compelled disclosure (to the extent legally permitted) and reasonable assistance (at the Discloser's cost) if the Discloser wishes to contest the disclosure. If the Recipient is compelled by law to disclose the Discloser's Confidential Information as part of a civil or criminal proceeding, and the Discloser is not contesting the disclosure, the Discloser will reimburse the Recipient for its reasonable cost of compiling and providing secure access to such Confidential Information.

14.2 Informal Dispute Resolution

Designated representatives of each Party shall consider any Dispute in person or by telephone by within ten (10) days of receipt of a written notice of the Dispute. Such representatives shall meet as reasonably necessary to discuss and attempt to resolve the Dispute.

14.3 Mediation

If the Dispute is unresolved within thirty (30) days of the first meeting of the Parties' representatives, the Parties will act promptly in good faith to jointly appoint a mutually acceptable mediator or, absent agreement, will submit the mediation to the [Mediation Centre and Location] in accordance with its rules and procedures. The Parties will participate in good faith in the mediation for thirty (30) days from the selection of the mediator and any further mutually agreed period. Each Party shall bear its own mediation costs and shall equally share the mediator's fees. The mediation will be without prejudice to the rights of the Parties if the mediation does not achieve an agreed resolution of the Dispute. Mediation is not required for a Dispute related to the collection of unpaid debt where the validity or amount of the debt is not being disputed in good faith and the creditor Party may proceed directly to arbitration.

14.4 Arbitration

If a Dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days after the selection of the mediator and any mutually agreed extension, the Dispute shall be submitted to, and finally determined by, binding arbitration administered by the [Arbitration Centre] in accordance with its Rules of Arbitration, as such rules are in effect on the date of delivery of a demand for arbitration. The arbitration and all related proceedings and discovery shall take place pursuant to a protective order that adequately protects Confidential Information. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. This arbitration agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards. In no event shall any arbitration award provide a remedy in excess of the limitations set forth in the Agreement and any award purporting to exceed such limitations shall be vacated to the extent of such excess. Both Parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the Agreement and the Agreement shall remain in effect while the Dispute is being resolved until it terminates or expires in accordance with its terms. The arbitration award will include an award of costs which will reflect the relative success of the Parties on the substantive issues.

15. General Provisions

15.1 Notices

- (a) All notices under the Agreement provided by the Client shall be in writing in English and sent by mail or courier to the Temenos address in the Order Form marked for the attention of the Legal Department, with a copy to the General Counsel, Temenos, Esplanade de Pont-Rouge 9C, 1212 Grand-Lancy, Switzerland.

Notice received by the Client shall be deemed to have been received by all relevant Client Affiliates.

15.2 Relationship of the Parties

The Parties are independent contractors. The Agreement does not create any partnership, franchise, joint venture, agency, fiduciary, or employment relationship, and neither Party shall hold itself out as having the power or authority to bind, act in the name of, or otherwise on behalf of, the other Party.

15.3 Assignment

Neither Party may assign any right or obligation under the Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party (not to be unreasonably withheld). However, Temenos may assign the Agreement to any Temenos Affiliate without requiring such consent, by notifying the Client in writing of such assignment. A Party's sole remedy for any purported assignment by the other Party in breach of this Section 15.3 shall be to terminate the Agreement upon written notice to the other Party. Subject to the foregoing, the Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

15.4 No Third-Party Beneficiaries

There are no third-party beneficiaries to the Agreement and no third party shall have any right to enforce any term of the Agreement.

Neither Party shall be liable for any unavailability, failure or delayed performance of its obligations under the Agreement if caused by a Force Majeure Event. The non-performing Party shall be excused from performance of affected obligations, other than payment obligations for the duration of the Force Majeure Event, but will use reasonable efforts to recommence performance to the extent possible without delay. The non-performing Party shall immediately notify the other Party and describe in reasonable detail the Force Majeure Event.

15.6 Waiver

No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right under the Agreement shall constitute a waiver of that right.

15.7 Severability

If any provision of the Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the provision shall be modified and interpreted so as best to accomplish the objectives of the original provision to the fullest extent permitted by law, and the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in effect.

15.8 Entire Agreement

The Agreement is the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, proposals or representations concerning its subject matter. No terms or conditions stated in the Client's purchase order or similar documentation (excluding an Order Form) shall form any part of the Agreement. The Agreement does not include any provision that applicable law would otherwise imply or incorporate, to the extent the law allows the Parties to exclude, waive, or disclaim the provision.

4. Fees

4.1 Professional Services can be provided by Temenos on a Fixed Price or on a Time and Material basis.

4.2 Fees for Professional Services agreed under a Services Order shall be paid by the Client in accordance with Section 6 (Fees) of the Enterprise Terms. Any Fees expressed on a Time and Materials basis will be invoiced monthly in arrears unless otherwise specified in a Services Order.

4.3 Applicable Person Day rates are set out in Appendix 1 or the Services Order (as applicable), and are subject to increase in accordance with Section 6.1 (Fees and Payment) of the Enterprise Terms.

4.4 Unless otherwise specified in a Services Order, the Person Day rates shall be used for calculating any Fees charged on a Time and Materials basis as well as additional Fees in respect of any Change Order (and, in respect of Change Orders impacting Fees otherwise agreed on a Fixed Price basis, without prejudice to Temenos' right to also consider any additional contingency). Person Days shall include any time spent travelling to enable performance of the Professional Services.

4.5 Temenos' staff working hours may be counted on a weekly basis, regardless of how the forty (40) hours have been spread across days (e.g., a work week equals forty (40) hours even if staff has been working six (6) hours on Monday and Friday and nine (9) or ten (10) hours on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday). This flexibility is particularly required for resources based elsewhere than in the Client's location and to avoid significant additional Expenses.

4.7 In relation to any Fees that are expressed to be charged on a Time and Materials basis, quotes or estimates of any total Fees or Person Days for Professional Services are non-binding good faith estimates based on the information available to Temenos at the time of quotation. Unless otherwise specified in a Services Order, Temenos shall, except in Fixed Price projects, communicate revisions to such estimates when the actual amount exceeds by more than ten percent (10%) the initial estimation in the Services Order and the Fees that will be chargeable will be based on the actual number of Person Days expended on the relevant Professional Services.

5. Per Diems and Expenses

5.1 Unless agreed otherwise in a Services Order, the Client shall pay a Per Diem amount to Temenos in respect of each resource working away from his/her base location and regardless of the basis on which Professional Services Fees are charged. The applicable Per Diem will be set out in the Services Order for the first year of the Term. Thereafter, the Per Diem amount shall be subject to adjustment to Temenos' then current Per Diem rate for the relevant country.

- 5.2 The Per Diem is paid instead of reimbursement of specific Expenses, including meals, local travel within a city (other than to/from airport) and all other incidental costs the resource incurs. Per Diems are also applicable on non-Working Days where the resource does not return to his/her base location.
- 5.3 The following Expenses are not covered by the Per Diem and are reimbursable by the Client in accordance with Section 5.5 based on the actual costs:
- (a) all flights and international travel;
 - (b) accommodation;
 - (c) transport to and from the airport;
 - (d) local travel between accommodation and the work location unless: (i) the distance is less than twenty (20) km; and (ii) local transportation is available that typically takes less than thirty (30) minutes;
 - (e) parking at the airport, which will be reimbursed if this is less than the return taxi fare; and
 - (f) reasonable laundry costs for stays of five (5) nights or longer.
- 5.4 The Client is responsible for all reasonable out-of-pocket Expenses associated with the Professional Services, including the Expenses excluded from the Per Diem set out in Section 5.3 above. Unless agreed otherwise, the Client is responsible for reservation and payment of all accommodation and travel required for Temenos resources engaged in the provision of Professional Services. For Expenses that have not been paid directly by the Client, Temenos shall provide a summary of incurred reimbursable Expenses, together with documentary evidence reasonably requested by the Client.
